

On The Shelf

New Products & Packaging

◆ Chateau Lassegue debuted a new label for its limited production Pink Criquet 2004 Bordeaux Rosé ($15 suggested retail), made from 60% merlot and 40% cabernet franc, and produced with no malolactic fermentation. The company also debuted a new label for its Chateau Vignot 2003 Saint Emilion Grand Cru ($35), a blend of 60% merlot and 40% cabernet franc, sourced from all old vines vineyards.

